YOUR GUIDE TO IMPORTANT DATES
AND INFORMATION ABOUT
OUR BANKING RELATIONSHIP

Welcome 1st Capital Bank clients!

We completed our merger on October 1, 2024, and the next step in combining our banks is a systems integration beginning Friday, December 13 and ending Sunday, December 15, 2024. We will be fully integrated as one combined bank on Monday, December 16, 2024. We will stay in communication with you during this process to make the transition as seamless as possible.

This welcome guide includes information that is relevant to you and your accounts, including frequently asked questions (FAQs) regarding the status of business and personal accounts, IRAs, CDs, loans, debit cards, online banking and much more. You will also find a comprehensive list of our full-service banking locations, expanded network of ATMs and information on enhanced products and services.

We are excited to launch a new bank name in the second quarter of 2025. All branches of the combined bank will be rebranded as West Coast Community Bank, a new name that reflects our commitment to serving a larger territory while maintaining personalized client-centric solutions.

We are confident you will enjoy and benefit from the strength of our new union. Our combined bank will continue to invest in the most advanced technology and products, creating a greatly improved client experience. Our business model successfully supports safety and soundness. We invite you to visit the investor relations page on our website for an archive of historical earnings releases and performance ratings.

For the past twenty years our banks have shared a culture of building relationships with clients and our community. Now, our combined resources allow us to better serve your financial needs and to devote more resources to the well-being of the communities we serve, with branches in four counties – Monterey, San Luis Obispo, Santa Clara (Silicon Valley) and Santa Cruz.

We hope you will take advantage of this added convenience and the opportunity to get to know our employees. We are, after all, a community within a community.

On behalf of our entire combined team, I extend you a warm welcome. It is our sincere pleasure to serve your banking needs.

Warmly,

Krista Snelling
President and CEO

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS ||

■ GENERAL

Will the name of 1st Capital Bank change?

1st Capital Bank will be renamed West Coast Community Bank in the second quarter of 2025.

Why are my accounts moving to Santa Cruz County Bank?

On October 1, 2024, we completed a successful merger. 1st Capital Bank will operate as a division of Santa Cruz County Bank until the aforementioned rebrand takes place.

When will my accounts be transferred over to Santa Cruz County Bank?

A systems integration will take place beginning Friday, December 13 and ending Sunday, December 15, 2024. Systems will be offline during this period. Beginning Monday, December 16, 2024, you will be able to access your accounts.

Will my account numbers change?

No. Your account numbers will remain the same unless we have notified you otherwise.

Can I use my 1st Capital Bank checks after the merger?

Yes. Your 1st Capital Bank checks will be honored.

When will I be able to make transactions at Santa Cruz County Bank branches and ATMs?

On December 16, 2024, 1st Capital Bank clients may begin making transactions at all Santa Cruz County Bank locations.

Will branch hours change?

No. Branch hours will remain the same. For a list of all locations and ATMs, please see page 12.

Will branch phone numbers change?

No. All branch phone numbers will remain the same.

Will any branches close as a result of the merger?

Yes. Some locations will be consolidated into nearby branches. The following branches will close on January 17, 2025:

- 1st Capital Bank's Salinas branches at 1097 S. Main Street and 150 Main Street, Suite 150 will be closed and consolidated into the Santa Cruz County Bank Salinas branch at 480 S. Main Street.
- 1st Capital Bank's Santa Cruz branch at 3110 Mission Drive will be closed and consolidated into the Santa Cruz County Bank Santa Cruz branch at 75 River Street.
- Santa Cruz County Bank's Monterey branch at 584 Munras Avenue will be closed and consolidated into the 1st Capital Bank Monterey branch at 300 Bonifacio Place.

What will happen to my safe deposit box at 1st Capital Bank?

Safe deposit boxes at the 1st Capital Bank Salinas branch, located at 1097 S. Main Street, will be moved to the Santa Cruz County Bank Salinas branch, located at 480 S. Main Street. Safe deposit box holders at the 1st Capital Bank Salinas branch will be notified by mail in advance of the move.

What is the Santa Cruz County Bank website address?

The website address is sccountybank.com.

■ ACCOUNTS

Will there be changes to my checking and savings accounts?

All 1st Capital Bank checking and savings accounts will be converted to Santa Cruz County Bank checking and savings accounts on December 16, 2024. Your account numbers will not change. You'll find the new classification of Santa Cruz County Bank account types on page 15. Please see the enclosed disclosures and Terms & Conditions for all details.

Will there be changes to my account statement?

The appearance of your account statement will change, but the information will be the same. Check images and electronic statements are available within online banking. Please note, you will receive a final account statement from 1st Capital Bank dated December 13, 2024.

What will happen to the beneficiaries I have designated on my accounts?

Your designated beneficiaries will remain the same. If you wish to make changes prior to December 13, 2024, please contact us.

What will happen with my automatic transfers?

Existing automatic transfers between 1st Capital Bank accounts will continue. No action by you will be necessary.

Does Santa Cruz County Bank provide night depository services?

Yes. Night depository services are available at all branches except Cupertino and King City.

What will happen to my FDIC insurance if I have accounts at both banks?

Your deposits at both banks are covered by a special FDIC insurance rule that protects clients with a combined balance over the $250,000 limit for at least six months after a merger or closing. For certificates of deposit (CDs), the FDIC allows the separate deposit insurance coverage to continue until the CD matures, in order to avoid a penalty for early withdrawal. For more information about FDIC coverage, visit fdic.gov or call toll-free 1.877.ASK.FDIC.

What will happen to my IRAs and CDs?

Your rates and terms for IRAs and CDs will stay the same through maturity. At maturity, you will have the option of renewing them at the rates and terms being offered at that time.

Can I open a new deposit account or loan prior to the December 13, 2024 transfer date?

Yes. You can apply for a loan prior to the transfer date. Please contact us about opening additional deposit accounts and we will advise you.

What will happen with my ICS/CDARs accounts?

ICS accounts will convert with the rest of your accounts at systems conversion, on December 16, 2024. CDARs will remain in their current product, rate and term until maturity and can then be transferred or reinvested at maturity with Santa Cruz County Bank's CDARs program. ICS/CDARS clients will receive two (2) IRS Form 1099s: one (1) from 1st Capital Bank and one (1) from Santa Cruz County Bank.

■ DEBIT CARDS

Will I receive a new debit card?

Not at this time. You may continue to use your 1st Capital Bank debit card. However, if your 1st Capital Bank debit card expires or needs to be re-ordered/replaced, your debit card will be reissued as a Santa Cruz County Bank debit card.

Will my debit card ATM transactions remain free of fees?

Yes. If you use your ATM card at a bank that charges a fee, you will see this charge and a same day credit on your account statement.

What will happen to my card management and business CardValet for my debit card(s)?

Your current alerts and travel notices through these services will not convert. On December 16, 2024 or later, you can re-enroll your existing 1st Capital Bank debit card(s) in the card management feature within the Santa Cruz County Bank mobile app for personal accounts and CardValet app for business accounts, which allow you to turn your card on or off any time. These apps are available in the App Store and Google Play.

■ BUSINESS SERVICES

How will my Remote Deposit Capture be impacted?

After the systems integration is completed on December 16, 2024, you will have access to Santa Cruz County Bank's FastTrack! remote capture product through the same website access that you are currently using, with your same user ID and password.

Will my Positive Pay transfer to Santa Cruz County Bank?

Yes. Your existing Positive Pay settings will be transferred. No action by you will be necessary.

Will my existing business wire transfer and/or ACH templates be available in the new system?

Yes. Wire transfer and ACH templates will transfer to the new system. As a best practice, we recommend that you export all wire and ACH templates prior to December 13, 2024.
